

W. C. T. U. CONVENTION

Annual Convention of Temperance Women of Fulton County—Protest Against Bryan Campaigning for Cox—Stirring Resolutions. Officers Elected.

The Annual Convention of the Fulton County W. C. T. U. was held in Wauseon Thursday evening, Sept. 24, and Friday, Sept. 25. The program being carried out as published last week. The meeting Thursday evening was held at the court house where a large crowd was addressed by Mrs. Viola D. Romans, State Corresponding Secretary. She emphasized the fact that the liquor element had precipitated this campaign and there is now no neutral ground. If the drys win it will be a wonderful step in advance but if the wets carry their amendment it will be an awful backward step.

Early Friday morning delegations began arriving from Delta, Archbold, Metamora and Tiedrow, that from Delta being especially large and enthusiastic.

One of the first acts of the convention was a vote to send a protest to Secy. Wm. J. Bryan against his coming to Ohio to campaign for Gov. Cox this fall, there being such a marked contrast in the attitude of the two men on the temperance question.

The reports from the different unions showed an astonishing amount of work had been done throughout the county during the year, with almost no ostentation.

Mrs. Romans closed the morning session with a rousing address on the campaign work going on all over the State, and what should be done in Fulton county at once. During the noon hour a bounteous dinner was served and the numerous committee workers on their reports while the others enjoyed a good social time.

After a brief program and the reports of the committees in the afternoon, the President asked Mrs. Romans to take the chair and conduct the election of officers. This she did making it an interesting and stirring drill in convention methods. The following officers were elected:

President.....Mrs. Lulu Plattner
Wauseon, Ohio

Vice President.....Mrs. Sarah Reighard
Delta, Ohio

Sec. Secy.....Mrs. Carl Mohr
Wauseon, Ohio

Cor. Secy.....Mrs. Bettie Cameron
Delta, Ohio

Treas.....Mrs. Hannah Fisher
Archbold, Ohio

The convention closed with another stirring address by Mrs. Romans dwelling especially on the efforts of the liquor elements to tie up women's hands even before they were unclashed.

The following is a synopsis of the Resolutions adopted by the Convention:

THAT
We advocate the reading of the bible in public schools.

We are growing tendency to sabbathize and endorse the Saturday school holiday.

We encourage railroad officials to enforce their rules in employing only non-drinking men.

We protest against a double standard of morals.

We endorse the "Better Babies" movement.

We condemn the present extreme fashions in women's apparel.

We recommend simplicity in the apparel of school children.

We join the churches in observing Oct. 4th as Peace Day, and make it a day of special prayer for universal peace.

We bend our energy to the bringing about of Women's Suffrage and State-wide Prohibition.

We express our appreciation to the Fair Board of Fulton County for all privileges and courtesies extended during the fair, and also to those who have contributed to the success of this convention.

MRS. C. S. SPILLANE.

Word was received by Mrs. Jacob Gehret Saturday, that her mother, Mrs. C. S. Spillane, passed away at her home in Buffalo, N. Y., at about eleven o'clock on that date. Sunday afternoon the body accompanied by her daughters, Emma and Jennie Spillane arrived in Wauseon and the body was taken to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Gehret where it remained until Tuesday afternoon when funeral services were held from the Congregational church of which Mrs. Spillane had been a member for many years. Mrs. Spillane was one of the pioneers of Fulton county having come to Chesterfield township with her parents in 1835. Since 1858 and until 1905 she resided in or near Wauseon and her life was closely associated with the life and growth of Wauseon. Hers was one of those rare characters in which a sweet and gentle disposition was combined with executive ability. She was a friend to everyone and active in all movements for the moral and social betterment of the community and was a loyal and enthusiastic temperance worker in the ranks of the W. C. T. U. Among the older residents of Wauseon and of the county she was well known and loved and respected by those who knew her. Many old friends and neighbors gathered at the Congregational church Tuesday afternoon for the funeral service.

MRS. C. S. SPILLANE

which was conducted by her former pastor Frank E. Kenyon assisted by Rev. Whitson of the Christian church. Interment was made in the Wauseon cemetery, following is a brief outline of her life read at the service:

Corinthia Sebra Butler was born in Cold Spring, Cataugaus County New York, Sept. 21st, 1825, and departed this life at her home in Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 26th, 1914, having just passed her 89th birthday anniversary five days before her decease. She came as a girl of ten years, with her parents, Harlow and Mary Butler, from the New York home at West Bloomfield, Ontario county to Ohio in 1835, the family locating in what is now Chesterfield township. She was one of a pioneer's family of eight children, five boys and three girls and was subject to the privations and toil incident to pioneer life. She attended school in Maumee and while doing so met Wm. H. Hall of Toledo to whom in 1847 she was united in marriage, to this union there were born three sons, one dying in infancy, two W. H. and Harlow B. growing to manhood of these, one, Mr. W. H. Hall of Toledo, surviving his mother. Mr. Hall died in 1854 and four years later, in 1858, Mrs. Hall was united in marriage to John Spillane of Wauseon. They lived in or near this village from the time of their marriage until the death of Mr. Spillane in 1879. To this union there were born four children, one son who died at the age of two years and three daughters, Emma, Jennie and Hattie, (Mrs. Jacob Gehret) who are left with the son W. H. Hall, two grand children and three great-grand children, to cherish the memory of a sweet gentle and loving life. Of the family of eight brothers and sisters, there remain but two brothers, Martin and John.

DAY OF PRAYER

President Woodrow Wilson Appoints Sunday October 4th, A National Day of Prayer For Peace in Europe.

President Woodrow Wilson, by proclamation, has appointed Sunday, Oct. 4, a national day of prayer for peace in Europe and called upon all God-fearing persons to gather in church on that day and petition Almighty God to heal again and restore once more concord among men and nations. The proclamation follows:

"Whereas, Great nations of the world have taken up arms against one another, and war now draws millions of men into battle whom the counsel of statecraft have not been able to save from the terrible sacrifice; and

"Whereas, In this as in all things it is our privilege and duty to seek counsel and succor of Almighty God, humbling ourselves before him, confessing our weakness and our lack of any wisdom equal to these things; and

"Whereas, It is the special wish and longing of the people of the United States, in prayer and counsel and all friendliness, to serve the cause of peace;

"Therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, president of the United States of America, do designate Sunday, the fourth day of October next, a day of prayer and supplication and do request all God-fearing persons to repair on that day to their places of worship, there to unite their petitions to Almighty God, that, overruling the counsel of men, setting straight the things they cannot govern or alter, taking pity on the nations now in the throes of conflict, in his mercy and goodness showing a way where men can see none, he vouchsafe his children to heal again and restore once more that concord among men and nations without which there can be neither happiness nor true friendship nor any wholesome fruit of toil or thought in the world, praying also to this end that he forgive us our sins, our ignorance of his holy will, our willfulness and many errors, and lead us in the paths of obedience to places of vision and to thoughts and counsels that urge and make wise."

THE DAILY LANTERN IS LAUNCHED AT UNIVERSITY

The Daily Lantern, the official newspaper of the Ohio State University, first issued the first time in its daily form last Tuesday. It is a four-page, six-column paper, issued by the University under the direct supervision of Prof. Joseph S. Myers, head of the Department of Journalism. The paper is edited by the new editor, Melvin Ryder, who is also the new paper and Ford G. Owens is business manager. Both are seniors in the College of Arts, Philosophy and Science.

"I like the Daily Lantern very much," said E. E. Cook, editor of the Columbus Citizen, when he saw the first copy of the new production. "It is snappy and newsy, well made up and typographical fine." Other Columbus newspaper men have expressed similar opinions.

With the establishment of the new Department of Journalism and the Daily Lantern, the University has installed a complete printing plant on the campus which is being used by the students of journalism as a laboratory. Three expert printers are in charge of the plant. News matter and advertising copy is turned in to them on schedule time by the reporters and advertising solicitors. A managing editor is in charge of the reporters' assignments each day. These students are sent to every department on the campus for news.

"The training we shall give the students of journalism on our paper this year will be almost identical to the training they would receive on any city paper," said Prof. Myers. "We expect to train these young men so that they will leave the University well equipped to go into newspaper work."

POSTMASTER OUTCALT

Over Eight Years of Efficient Service as Postmaster of Wauseon—Emil Weber Assumes Duties of Postmaster Thursday Morning. Office Force Give Reception to Outgoing and Incoming Chiefs.

Last Thursday morning October first, Mr. Emil Weber entered upon his duties as Postmaster of Wauseon having received his commission from President Woodrow Wilson last Saturday. Mr. Weber succeeds J. F. Outcalt who has served so efficiently as Wauseon's Postmaster for the past eight and a half years that to the average citizen of our town the post office was like a healthy stomach, he never stopped to think that there was one. Dr. Outcalt received his first commission from President Theodore Roosevelt and the second commission from President W. H. Taft, had Mr. Taft been re-elected to the presidency there would have been without doubt a third commission to Dr. Outcalt but that is "spilled milk" and there is no use crying over it. As it is Dr. Outcalt's last commission expired last February but because of events which have gone down in history as "The Wauseon Post Office Fight," the Democratic administration failed to get around to the appointment and confirmation of his successor until last August.

J. F. OUTCALT

Dr. Outcalt succeeded Walter Brigham, who died before his last commission expired, and during the eight years of his incumbency the business of the office has steadily increased. During these years the rural carriers system has developed and as there are seven of these carriers on the force in the Wauseon office all under the supervision and direction of the postmaster that position has been something more than a sinecure. The establishment of the city delivery system increased the force in the office by three more carriers to say nothing of substitutes and of course brought an increase in the duties and responsibilities of the postmaster. Then there came the institution of the Parcel Post department and the Postal Savings Bank department and the new features had to be installed and put into working order in the Wauseon office. Through all these innovations and increase of work Dr. Outcalt with the able help of his assistant E. H. Jordan has kept on the even tenor of his way, doing what to be done efficiently and taking up the unpleasant tasks with the air brought over from his professional days of "never let me all over a job in a minute and it won't hurt much just open your mouth a little more please." In the language of the street, Dr. Outcalt has made a "sting good postmaster" and the business men and citizens of Wauseon have put it down to his credit whether the recording angel attended to the matter or not.

What line of business activity Dr. Outcalt will enter we do not know, but we are hoping that it may be something that will not take him or his family out of town; he is too valuable a man in the community for us to lose without at least a protest. For years he has served on the Wauseon Board of Education and is at present a member of County Board of Education as well. He has always been identified with every movement for the progress or betterment of the town and of the county and is one of our first citizens. On Wednesday evening the office force gave a banquet in G. A. R. Hall to honor the outgoing Postmaster and welcome the incoming Postmaster. All of the present corps of employees will be retained and we wish that Postmaster Weber may be as successful in his administration of the office as his predecessor has been. Under the present laws all of the post office employees with the exception of the postmaster hold their positions under Civil Service rules and may only be removed for cause unless they see fit to resign. This insures continuous efficiency of service to the public regardless of changes in the Postmaster's ship and as well makes it easier for a new postmaster to become acquainted with the work of the office.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

In Memory of Comrade Jesse Tracy:
Sleep on ye fallen Comrade, the Victory you have won
You've served the nation's banner, Your task has been well done.
Rest under wreaths of laurels by Grateful people given
We strew your grave with flowers, The sweetest of the heaven.

Commander—It is our duty to report to you that Comrade Jesse Tracy a late member of Company E, of the 21st O. V. I., during the war of the Rebellion, and who was a tried, true and faithful member of Lousie Post, No. 35, Department of Ohio, G. A. R. was on Sept. 15th, 1914. Called to the Grand Army above.

Wherefore, we, your Committee in testimony of his loyalty to his country when its glorious principles of freedom were assailed, to his private character as a citizen, and as a true and loyal member of the Grand Army of the Republic; recommend that a copy of these expressions of our regard for the fallen Comrade be sent to his family.

W. C. T. U. ACTIVITIES.

Following is a report of some of the activities of the Wauseon W. C. T. U. during the year just past:

Sold quotations books and cook books on commission.

On Nov. 26, observed Mothers Day and sent congratulations to newly elected mayor.

Distributed forty copies of Senator Holston's speech.

Circulated suffrage and prohibition petitions.

Made preparation for National Prohibition Day but observance called off on account of small pox epidemic.

In February observed Francis Willard Day with address by one of her personal friends.

Held social for benefit of flower fund.

Sent out sixty bouquets and four wreaths.

Sent eight luncheons to shut-ins.

Sent sunshine bag to sick member sojourning in Florida.

President made one hundred and fifty personal calls for benefit of the Union.

Received donation of $9.10 from which were purchased one hundred uniforms for use of Loyal Temperance Legion at County S. S. Convention.

Conducted essay contest in public schools, in which there were forty contestants from the High school and fifteen from the eighth grade. Gave $8.00 in money and four dozen carnations to prize winners.

Took 8 subscriptions to Ohio Messenger and about 200 campaign numbers of American issue.

Gave out 500 Equal Suffrage fans at the Chautauqua.

Sold about 1000 Ohio Dry Booster Stamps.

Assisted the county organization in maintaining a booth at county fair, putting up about 50 posters, handing out 2000 Ohio Dry badges, besides quantities of campaign literature, and engaging Mrs. Gleason of Toledo, who gave twelve rousing open air addresses at the fair.

CEMENT STAVE SILO CO.

One of the Industries of Wauseon that has quietly been doing a good business and at the same time contributing a liberal share to the prosperity of the town is the Wauseon Cement Stave Silo Company during the present season this company has manufactured and installed 100 cement stave silos, in doing this they have contributed to the permanent improvement of every farm on which they have placed a silo.

They have also given employment to thirty-two men during the season and their business is of such a nature that it has required the investment of considerable ready money for material and labor. Just such concerns as this are what make Wauseon prosperous.

RURAL EDUCATION EXHIBIT.

The division of agricultural education of the Ohio State University has collected a number of the most noteworthy books recently published on rural and agricultural education. This collection is to be known as "The Rural Educator's 30-inch Book Shelf." The books are carefully packed in a neat case for exhibition purposes, and the set will be sent out to institutes, country life conferences, and teachers' meetings for exhibition on guarantee that transportation charges both ways and packing expenses will be paid by the organization desiring the exhibit. Inquiries should be addressed to Prof. G. A. Bricker, Ohio State University, Columbus.

Do you know that over 50% of the heat in the ordinary stove goes up the chimney—a dead waste of heat and of money?

THE DAY of the ordinary stove is passing. Big coal bills and chilly houses are going out of style. Folks are growing tired of inefficient, wasteful methods—of shoveling coal into stoves that send most of the heat into the chimney instead of into the house.

There's a new way now—a vastly better way that is revolutionizing home heating. Thousands everywhere have installed it—people all over the country are proclaiming it as the "Heating Marvel of the Age."

Estate Hot Storm
—the Stove with a "Little Furnace in it" is not a stove, not a furnace, but a heating system that combines the best features of both.

The diagram at the left shows the ordinary stove construction—how 50 to 75% of all the heat goes up the chimney, for the simple reason that there is nothing to stop it.

The diagram at the right shows the new way—the Estate Hot Storm way. Note how the Little Furnace checks and absorbs the upward rushing heat; how it draws air from the room through pipes on both sides of the stove; and how this air is intensely heated and discharged through the top, either directly into the room in which the stove sets, or into a pipe to conduct the heat to rooms above or adjoining.

It is easy to see why this results in an amazing saving in fuel. The saving is so great that your Estate Hot Storm will easily pay for itself in a few seasons. And after that it will pay you.

All we ask you to do is to investigate the Estate Hot Storm before you buy a stove of any kind. You owe it to yourself to do so.
